

Ahmad Khairul Anwar

Full Stack Javascript Developer

10 years of experience of work in several fields (IT Hardware Support, Web Developer, Content Management, etc). as for now, I'm a full-time web-front-end Developer

As a Front End Engineer, I love to deliver a good product for clients and users, for now, I am using React Library for most of my projects.

As a Back End Engineer, I had knowledge of using node js, express js, and PHP to create APIs. I like to learn something new and sometimes write to track my journey
